SB 711 (Leno) Public Meetings; Closed Session; Labor Negotiations

In January and March we notified you of SB711, proposed by the California Newspaper Publishers Association, which would have required disclosure of written communications and “all known matters” prior to entering into closed session regarding labor negotiations.

I am pleased to report that the most recent revision deletes the language which was of major concern. The language that was deleted would have required cities to make labor negotiation proposals available to the public before entering into closed session. Instead, the new language requires the designated representative to provide an oral report on the status of the negotiations.

As now written, SB 711 would also require that final action be taken at an open and public meeting, and that “the closed session may only take place prior to and during consultations and discussion with representatives of employee organizations and unrepresented employees.”

The Senate Committee on Local Government is scheduled to hear SB 711 on April 15 at 9:30 a.m.

Attached is a copy of the most recent version.

(1) Approval of an agreement concluding real estate negotiations pursuant to Section 54956.8 shall be reported after the agreement is final, as follows:

(A) If its own approval renders the agreement final, the body shall report that approval and the substance of the agreement in open session at the public meeting during which the closed session is held.

(B) If final approval rests with the other party to the negotiations, the local agency shall disclose the fact of that approval and the substance of the agreement upon inquiry by any person, as soon as the other party or its agent has informed the local agency of its approval.

The report shall identify, if known, the adverse party or parties and the substance of the litigation. In the case of approval given to initiate or intervene in an action, the announcement need not identify the action, the defendants, or other particulars, but shall specify that the direction to initiate or intervene in an action has been given and that the action, the defendants, and the other particulars shall, once formally commenced, be disclosed to any person upon inquiry, unless to do so would jeopardize the agency's ability to effectuate service of process on one or more unserved parties, or that to do so would jeopardize its ability to conclude existing settlement negotiations to its advantage.

If the action taken results in one or more substantive amendments to the related documents requiring retyping, the documents need not be released until the retyping is completed during normal business hours, provided that the presiding officer of the legislative body or his or her designee orally summarizes the substance of the amendments for the benefit of the document requester or any other
