

Tridae Hughes-Gonzales
Management Analyst
City of San Diego

Tridae is a Management Analyst with the City of San Diego, Office of the City Clerk. She has served as a City Clerk professional for over 20 years.

A proud native San Diegan, Tridae obtained a Master's degree in Public Administration with specialization in Organizational Leadership from National University in 2017. She also attained her Certified Municipal Clerk (CMC) designation in 2017. As a life-long learner, Tridae is eager to share her knowledge and experience for enhancing her native community.

Tridae is excited to serve as the current City Clerk's Association of California (CCAC) Region 9 Director. She also serves as a member of the CCAC Membership and Inclusivity Committee and the Mentoring Committee. The opportunities afforded to serve and inspire others through this leadership capacity resonates with Tridae's purpose.

In her free time, Tridae volunteers as a Community Health Advocate. She enjoys connecting with nature through gardening, outdoor activities and garden-to-table healthy cooking.
